

A stylized illustration in dark blue and gold on a light beige background. The scene depicts the story of Jonah. At the top, a city with a golden crown sits on a hill. A large, swirling wave dominates the center. A figure of a man stands on a small patch of land to the right, looking up at a golden sun. Below the wave, a large fish is shown swallowing a smaller fish. The word 'KYCK' is written in large, bold, blue letters across the middle of the wave. Below it, the year '2026' is written in dark blue. At the bottom, the word 'JONAH' is written in blue, with a small fish jumping over it.
